To write a fairy tale

Once upon a time there lived a sweet-natured, kind and lovely young woman called CinderCathrine the daughter of a strict and horrible queen named Isabella of Spain and had two invidious sisters. Her two sisters were very lazy and only let CinderCathrine do the chores. Then one day an invitation arrived and slipped through the door. One of the sisters read it and it said... "meet the king at the royal court Henry will see you!" "You're not coming!" yelled her mother she also said "Henry VIII is a hot tempered man and a nuisance" "Oh you don't deserve it!" Cathrine immediately ran into her crowded room and sobbed. Suddenly a beam of glimmering sparkling fire stone's shone on her delicate face. Then transformed into a lovely fairy god queen and granted all her wishes and Cath flew on her private jet to the court! When she arrived the fairy god queen said "Be back at 9pm!" Then vanished innocently away. When young Cathy entered the court she felt awkward. After that Henry VIII offered Cathrine to dance she accepted and smiled about. Oh no! She didn't realise the time but when she did she rushed back home and lost her court! The king was worried. Then he found the princess and they both lived happily ever after!
