

I am sweet on the inside but crunchy
on the out side.

You can eat me for desert but you can also eat me after school.

I am unhealthy because I have lots of sugar.

I have jam in the inside but classic biscuit on the outside.

I am crumbly on the out-side but sweet
on the inside.

I am hard when you eat me plain but when you dip me in tea I go soggy.

what am I? I am a jammy dodger.
