How to wash a woolly mammoth

IS your woolly mammoth as dirty as a pig? Does he smell that bad that you need a pig mask? If it is then its time for a BATH! Follow these simple steps and your mammoth is going to be as clean as an aquarium.

You will need:

- Heavy duty crane, towel, Rubber duck
- A kitchen sink, lukewarm water
- tooth brush, A mask, Elbow grease
- Bath plug, Comb, Ear buds, A bar of soap
- Shampoo, Window squeegee, Bath, Curl tamer
- Bath bombs, Body scrub, Shower cap

Method

- 1 First, gently put the plug into the bath.
- 2 Next, fill up the bath all the way to the top.
- 3 While the bath is running pour some bubble bath in.
- 4 After that, leave the mammoth into the bath.
- 5 Now scrub into the little crevices.

- 6 Wash all over his tummy, legs, face and arms.
- 7 Play around for a few minutes.
- 8 While the marmoth is playing get a towel.
- 9 Start to get the marmoth out and dry him.
- 10 Get a big blanket and blanket.
